

Italian Culture Class at Casa Belvedere

A ten-week course - Beginning March 21, 2012
Wednesdays - 7:30-9:00 p.m.

This course will provide a wide variety of topics allowing one to experience the exuberance and diversity of Italy and its influence on Americans of Italian heritage. Surveying its history, art, music, culture and people will give insights to the creative energy and spirit that has affected the world for centuries and to this day. The course will be taught by a number of different presenters working individually and collaboratively to make each presentation a passionate and fascinating evening.

Topics

- March 21st Travel in Italy
Instructors: Frank Polizzi, Anita Sanseverino and Lou Barrella
- March 28th The Italian Renaissance
Instructor: Francesco Bonavita
- April 4th Italian American Literature
Instructor: Frank Polizzi
- April 18th Regional Photographic Beauty
Instructors: Anita Sanseverino and Lou Barrella
- April 25th Cross Cultural Interaction
Instructors: Frank Polizzi and Lou Barrella
- May 2nd Italian American Singers
Instructor: John Orlando
- May 9th Italian Opera-A Reflection of Humanity
Instructor: Lou Barrella
- May 16th The Holocaust in Italy: The Life and Times of Primo Levi
Instructor: Francesco Bonavita
- May 23rd The Influence of Italian Cinema
Instructor: Frank Polizzi
- May 30th The Culture, Music & Scenic Beauty of Naples
Instructors: Anita Sanseverino and Lou Barrella

Tuition:

All Ten Sessions - $195 (Advance Payment Required)
Two or more Sessions - $35 per Session (Advance Payment Required)
Individual Session - $45

Class Location: Casa Belvedere Mansion, 79 Howard Avenue, SI, NY 10301.